PRIVACY POLICY

Version 1.0

Date of last revision: July 29, 2016.

This PRIVACY POLICY was written in English (US). To the extent any translated version of this Agreement conflicts with the English version, the English version controls.

Your privacy is important to us. We will not sell or disclose any personal information you provide us to any third party. We take reasonable precautions to keep all personal data we have stored safe from disclosure or theft by others. With permission from you, we may send updates about the company, our services and developments. You can exercise your right to receive, or to prevent, these communications by checking certain boxes on the forms we use to collect your data. Our email communications will provide you with the ability to opt out of receiving future such communications. We may collect information, including IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration and to understand aggregate information to improve our site. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns, and does not identify any individual. We may collect and process the following data:

- Information that you provide by filling in forms on our site. This includes information provided at the time of registering to use our site. We may also ask you for information when you report a problem with our site;
- If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence;
- If you agree to complete surveys, we may store and use that data for research purposes;
- Details of visits to our site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data and other communication data, and the resources accessed;
- We use third-party cookies provided by Google Analytics to gather anonymous information for the benefit of all web users.

The purpose of collecting this information is:

- To ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner;
- To provide you with information or services that you request from us, or which we feel may interest you, where you have consented to be contacted for such purposes;
- To allow you to participate in interactive features of our service, when you choose to do so;
- To notify you about changes, updates and upgrades to our service;
- We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff operating outside the EEA. By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this privacy policy.

All changes to this Privacy Policy will be posted here. Please visit this page regularly to stay up to date.
